OAKLAND UNIVERSITY MOTTO

The motto of Oakland University, “Sequir Virtute E. Canoscenza,” which is incorporated in its seal, has a distinguished origin, Canto XXVI, line 120, of Dante’s Inferno.

These are the final words of Ulysses’ great speech to his men urging them to sail on and on in pursuit of knowledge and experience of the world — even beyond the pillars of Hercules, traditionally the frontier and limit of legitimate exploration.

This is the three-line stanza:

Considerate la vostra semenza

Fatti non foste a viver come bruti

Ma per seguir virtute e canoscenza

Consider your birth

You were not made to live like brutes

But to follow courage and knowledge

Message from the President

Congratulations to the Oakland University graduating class of 2021. Today we celebrate and honor you for your hard work and dedication that has helped you reach this milestone. In addition, you have demonstrated exceptional resilience and tenacity during an unforeseen and historic crisis. This makes your accomplishments even more extraordinary and for this you should be very proud.

Your experiences at Oakland have prepared you to contribute to a diverse, rapidly changing and increasingly global world in which you will find many opportunities. Your education and response to these unique circumstances have equipped you to help make the world a better place and to serve others with compassion and love.

As you embark on your new journey, always remember your time at Oakland and the people you have met; the students, faculty and staff that have contributed to the person you have become today. And, know that you also have made a difference in the lives of others and they, too, will remember you.

On behalf of the faculty and staff of Oakland University, we applaud you on this significant achievement. We wish you an overwhelming abundance of success in all your endeavors and hope that you will stay connected.

Ora Hirsch Pescovitz, MD
President

Message from the Provost

I have the profound honor of congratulating the classes of 2020 and 2021! As OU graduates, you have not only endured the many challenges earning a college degree can present, but you are among the very few who persisted against unthinkable odds and thrived during a global pandemic!

As you begin the next chapter, please take a moment to reflect on what you have learned at Oakland University, the many experiences you have had, and the lifelong friends you have made. You are now part of the OU fabric, for it is with each graduate, thread by thread, that we weave the unique historic tapestry that has become Oakland University.

The class of 2020-2021 is without doubt, the most special and historic of our graduate classes, for each of you demonstrated the infallible Grizzly spirit, withstanding unforeseeable odds to succeed!

As you leave Oakland, please continue to protect your health and wellness and that of those around you, and to never lose sight of the strong set of values that make you the success story you already are. I wish you unparalleled success and hope that you stay connected to our beloved university. We give great thanks to you and your families for choosing Oakland and look forward to learning about your outstanding future endeavors!

Britt Rios-Ellis, M.S., Ph.D.
Executive Vice President for Academic Affairs and Provost

About Oakland University

Oakland University was created in 1957, when the late Alfred and Matilda Wilson donated $2 million and their 1,500-acre estate to Michigan State University to begin a new college in Oakland County.

Named Michigan State University-Oakland, the new campus enrolled its first 570 students in 1959. In 1963, its name changed to Oakland University as the first class graduated with 125 students receiving diplomas. In 1970, the Michigan Legislature recognized the maturity and stature of the University by granting it autonomy, and the governor appointed Oakland University's first Board of Trustees.

From its beginnings, the University has emphasized academic quality, concentrating on providing a dynamic, student-focused learning environment with integration of liberal and professional studies by a faculty of dedicated scholar-teachers. The natural beauty of the campus, much of it still wooded and undeveloped, is enhanced by comprehensive recreational facilities and modern buildings that house the University's many academic and public service programs as well as more than 2,700 residential students.

Dedicated to preparing graduates to make meaningful and substantial contributions to the workplace, society and academia, the University is organized into eight academic units: the College of Arts and Sciences; the schools of Business Administration, Education and Human Services, Engineering and Computer Science, Health Sciences, Medicine, and Nursing; and The Honors College.

Oakland has over 140 bachelor degree programs and over 137 graduate degree and certificate programs. Doctorates are offered in education with concentrations in educational leadership, counseling and early childhood education; biomedical sciences with specializations in medical physics, health and environmental chemistry, and biological communication; reading education; systems and mechanical engineering; physical therapy; applied mathematical sciences; nursing practice; music education; computer science and informatics; psychology, medicine, and electrical and computer engineering.

The University is continuously adapting to meet the changing needs of students and the marketplace. New programs delivered online and on campus include master's degree programs in nursing, psychology, training and development, public health, software engineering, an Executive MBA program in health care management, and innovative Honors College courses. Business and industry partnerships provide unprecedented opportunities for advanced, hands-on learning.

Now, over 19,000 students attend classes at Oakland University each year, and the number of OU alumni has increased to more than 100,000.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT 2020

Najah Bazzy

Najah Bazzy, RN, is an internationally recognized healer, humanitarian and interfaith leader who left a six-figure salary as a critical-care nurse to build Zaman International. The Metro-Detroit based non-profit empowers marginalized women and children to break the cycle of extreme poverty. In 2019, she was recognized as a Top Ten CNN Hero highlighting Zaman's growth from a grassroots team of volunteers to a world-class organization with a global reach that has helped more than 1.8 million people in 20 countries since 2010.

Born and raised in Southeast Michigan, Najah earned her nursing degree from Madonna University and specialized over the past three decades in critical care and transcultural nursing. The CEO of Diversity Specialists, Najah has implemented a national model of transcultural clinical care and hosted workshops for health care institutions across the country. She also serves as an adjunct professor at Michigan State University's Institute of International Health, and hosts transcultural leadership workshops on bereavement and medical ethics for chaplains at Bayan Claremont Theological School. In 1997, she co-founded the Young Muslim Association, now known as the Muslim Youth Connection, and serves as Senior Advisor providing leadership training to youth.

Najah has been interviewed by national and international media outlets about her work. Recently, Najah was selected as a CNN Hero for 2019. Najah has been profiled on CBS 62's "Eye On The Future: The Power of Women" along with Suzanne Shank, Mary Barra, Gretchen Valade, and Andra Rush. She was featured on a United Way of Southeast Michigan billboard as a source of inspiration to Detroit-area youth.

An avid reader and tea aficionado, Najah lives in Canton, Mich., with her husband of more than 35 years, Allie Bazzy. They have four children and three grandchildren.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENTS 2021

Tom Kimble

Tom is President Emeritus of AARP Michigan. As President, he had the responsibility of leading AARP's 1.4 million members and served as the organization's chief spokesperson.

Professionally, Tom retired from General Motors in 2002 after serving as Vice-Chairman of the General Motors Foundation and Director of GM's Global Philanthropic Administration. He was responsible for leading General Motors Contributions Planning Board, the governing body for GM's contributions and memberships. The Board was accountable for setting corporate policies and processes, and guiding direction for GM's philanthropic activities globally. GM's contributions under his leadership were $125 Million per year.

A native of Dallas, Texas, Tom joined General Motors Finance Staff in 1972 after graduation from college. In his finance staff assignments, Tom served as the Director of Corporate Business Risk Management and a Director of GM's Profit Analysis activity where he was responsible for the development of GM's $200 Billion Annual Budget and its Five Year Strategic Plan. He was highly recognized for initiating the development and implementation of Return on Net Assets (RONA), GM's key initiative to improving shareholder value. Prior to this assignment, he held several management positions on GM's Finance Staff, including Plant Comptroller, where he was responsible for plants in the Pontiac, Michigan area.

Shortly after his 30-year retirement, Tom joined with six other investors in a bank holding company which started banks in the Oakland County Michigan area. In addition to serving on the Board of the Clarkston Financial Corporation Holding Company he served on the Clarkston State Bank Board and chaired the Board's Audit Committee. He also served on the Bank's Director Loan Committee. The Bank was recently sold in January 2020.

He is married to Diandria Kimble who retired after 30 years as an educator in Pontiac. Tom has a wide span of experience in community relations and philanthropy on both a national and local level.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENTS 2021

Kathleen Ligocki

Kathleen Ligocki didn't leave her energy and enthusiasm behind when she graduated from Haworth High School with the class of '74. College was her next stop, and she graduated magna cum laude from Indiana University Kokomo. Her degree was in liberal arts, specifically Chinese history and Renaissance Art, but Kathleen followed her dad into a job at General Motors in Kokomo. Working as a supervisor, she quickly earned a reputation for hard work and attention to detail and was awarded a graduate fellowship to the prestigious M.B.A. program at the Wharton School of Business. She has since received honorary doctoral degrees from IU Kokomo and Central Michigan University.

Kathleen's resume includes a series of executive positions at Ford Motor Company, where she served as CEO of Ford of Mexico, Vice President of Marketing and Operations and Vice President of the customer service division, among others. Since leaving Ford in 2003, she has served as CEO of Tower Automotive, GS Motors, Next Autoworks, and Harvest Power, and was the operating partner at Kleiner Perkins Caulfield & Byers, a Silicon Valley venture capital firm. She also founded her own consultancy firm, Pine Lake Partners, to assist start-ups and turn-arounds. In 2005, she was named to Automotive News' 100 Leading Women in the Auto Industry.

From December 2015 to February 2019 Ligocki served as the CEO of Agility Fuel Systems, a company that provides innovative natural gas fuel systems for heavy duty commercial vehicles.

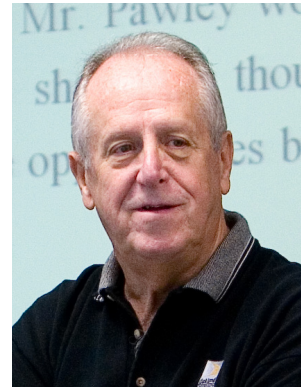

Kathleen Ligocki has been a director of Lear Corporation since September 2012. She currently serves on the boards of Carpenter Technology where she sits on the Compensation, Nominating/Governance, and Strategy Committees; Farmers Business Network where she serves on the Audit and Compensation Committees; and the Indiana University Foundation where she sits on the Legal/Governance and Audit Committees. She is a member of the IUK Alumni Association Hall of Fame and founded the Kathleen Ligocki International Travel Studies program at IUK in 2008.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENTS 2021

Dennis Pawley

Dennis Pawley is the former Executive Vice President of Manufacturing for DaimlerChrysler in North America. He was responsible for more than 80,000 employees in 12 car and truck assembly plants, along with five manufacturing technical centers and 18 component stamping and power train plants in the United States and Canada. In addition, he had responsibility for power train and stamping operations in Mexico and was in charge of DaimlerChrysler joint venture manufacturing relationships abroad, principally in China and Austria. He also was responsible for all labor relations activities in North America and served as a member of the Corporate Executive Committee.

In April 2001, Pawley and partner, Andy Carlino, co-founded the Lean Learning Center, located in Novi, Michigan. The center assists suppliers in the development of lean operating systems. Using more than 30 years of experience in automotive manufacturing labor relations, Pawley is an expert in planning and implementing operating systems that work to the benefit of stockholders, the company and workforce. In addition, Pawley also owns an independent management consulting firm, Pawley Enterprises, LLC, which is located in Farmington Hills, Michigan.

Prior to joining DaimlerChrysler, Pawley was a Vice President for Otis Group, United Technologies Corporation; Vice President for Manufacturing at Mazda Motor Corporation, USA; and held various automotive manufacturing management positions with General Motors Corp.

He was a trustee of the Chrysler Institute of Engineering, the Chrysler Corporation Fund and Boys and Girls Club of Southeastern Michigan. In September 2002, he was appointed to the Oakland University Board of Trustees by Governor John Engler. He earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Human Resource Development from Oakland University in 1987. In February 2002, Pawley funded a $1 million endowment to the University for the establishment of the Pawley Lean Learning Institute. Designed to benefit Oakland University students, schools, nonprofits, government and industry, the Pawley Lean Institute shares concepts and practices of Lean thinking to create leaders and learners in the University, public and private sectors, and the community.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENTS 2021

Patrick Scoggin (Posthumously)

Patrick Scoggin was the owner and President of Huntington Ford in Rochester Hills, Michigan from 2002 to 2019 and Manager of Fixed Operations 1996 to 2001.

He managed and directed all aspects of large metropolitan Detroit Ford dealership totaling over $100M in annual revenue. He was responsible for 100+ employees while managing sales, service and parts operations as well as human resources, facility maintenance, and financial analysis.

Huntington Ford was consistently awarded Ford Motor Company's Top 100 Dealer Award, placing it among the top 2% of all Ford dealerships in national sales volume. He received many awards, among them was Ford Motor Company's highest honor, the President's Award, in 2011 and 2012.

Patrick was a member of the Rochester Hills Mayor's Business Council; Board member of the Southeast Michigan Ford Dealers' Association and President in 2007, 2013, 2014; Board member of the Southeast Michigan Ford Dealers' Advertising Fund and Chairman 2008, 2011, 2015, and 2019; Board member of the Metro Detroit Ford Dealers' Benefit Fund; and Board member of the Motor City Mitten Mission charitable organization

At Oakland University, he established an ongoing scholarship in 2012 providing one Rochester area high-school student with a four-year full tuition scholarship.

Additionally, he established the Patrick and Christie Scoggin Family Foundation in 2016, a non-profit charitable trust that is focused on assisting with financial needs in respect to education, including a full range of programs ranging from early childhood through adult education.

He is survived by his wife, Christie Scoggin, and his four children.

MACE AND PRESIDENT'S MEDALLION

In medieval times, a mace was used in warfare. The mace is one of the oldest traditions in academe dating back to the early 1400's when it transitioned from warfare to ceremonial use. Considered a symbol of the University itself, the scepter mace is carried by the University marshal during commencement, convocation and other ceremonial events to signify the arrival of the faculty processional. Oakland's mace, created in 1994, was crafted by jeweler and OU alumnus, Paul Haig and designer Robert Dobbie of P.R. Haig Jewelers in Rochester.

The 30-inch long, approximately 8-pound mace has a white oak handle trimmed with sterling silver ribbon. A black obsidian disk on top is ringed with silver and is inscribed with the University motto. Obsidian is a natural black glass formed by the earth. On each side of the obsidian disk, there is a 14k yellow gold sail. On the base of the handle, a gold oak tree was modeled after a live tree on campus. The clean, straightforward design of the mace reflects the fact that Oakland University is a contemporary institution.

The President's Medallion, also created in 1994 by the same jeweler, is six inches in diameter and reveals the University sail, hangs on a silver chain and is worn by the president at ceremonial events. It is a permanent part of the University's president's academic regalia.

Mission

Oakland University cultivates the full potential of a diverse and inclusive community. As a public doctoral institution, we impact Michigan and the world through education, research, scholarship, and creative activity.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

An edifying note contributed by a certain anonymous doctor of philosophy.

On at least two solemn occasions during the academic calendar — spring and fall commencement — the faculty of the University publicly displays its full academic regalia and participates in the liturgy of processional and recessional, that curious coming and going that symbolizes the ceremony of commencement. The purposes of commencement are well known, but the reasons for the peculiar garb of the celebrants and their odd order of march are often as obscure to the audience as they are, in fact, to the faculty itself. This note may serve to explain academic dress and the professional pecking order it costumes.

Contemporary academics are descendants of clerical schoolmen in the universities of medieval Europe. Like the clergy, members of the bench and bar, and other learned professions, medieval scholars were clothed in heavy robes to stay warm in unheated stone buildings. Like all members of a hierarchical society, the medieval faculties rejoiced in visible insignia of rank. These outward signs of accomplishment and authority were tailored into robes. Although the need for such voluminous garments to keep the scholar from freezing is long past, the use of them as emblems of dignity remains. You will observe that all caps and gowns worn by our faculty are black, with certain exceptions. Black was the color adopted by mutual agreement among American universities at the end of the 19th century. In Europe, each University has its own distinctive gown, varying in color and cut from all others.

There are three basic academic degrees: the baccalaureate or bachelor's degree, the master's degree, and the doctorate. A special style of robe is prescribed for each. The bachelor's gown is sparsely cut, neat, but a bit skimpy and unadorned, as befits apprentices. The master's gown is still simple, but fuller, sports a sleeve of extraordinary design impossible to describe, and has a hood draped from the shoulders down the back. Once used to keep the frost from the tonsured heads of medieval clerks, the hood is solely a badge of a degree of scholarly achievement. The master's hood is small and narrow, but displays the colors of the institution that awarded the degree. If you knew the colors of American universities, you could easily identify whence came our masters. The doctoral robe is the most handsome of academic raiment. Generous of cut, of fine aristocratic stuff, it is faced with velvet chevrons on the ample sleeves. You will note that most of the velvet facings and chevrons are black, but that some are of other colors. According to personal taste, the doctor may display the color of his or her doctoral degree on the sleeves and facings: light blue for education, pink for music, apricot for nursing, orange for engineering, and many more. The royal blue of the Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.) is the most commonly seen in liberal arts institutions such as Oakland. The doctor's hood is the most elegant of all academic appurtenances. Large and graceful, it is lined in satin with the colors of the University that awarded the degree and is bordered with the color of the degree itself. Most academic costumes include the square cap called a mortarboard; the doctor's tassel may be either black or gold — tassels of all other degrees are black and stringy.

To instructed eyes, the order of march in the processional and recessional reveals the standing of individuals in the institution's formal hierarchy. In the processional, the order of entrance into the hall is, quite fittingly, from most junior to most senior. The baccalaureate candidates enter first, followed successively by the masters and doctoral candidates with the whole separated from the faculty by a decent interval. In the faculty order, the instructors precede the assistant professors that in turn are followed by the associate professors. The august full professors bring up the rear. After a respectful distance come the deans who in turn are separated by a significant space from the awful majesty of the platform party, the vice president, the president, and the members of the board of trustees.

All remain standing until the board is seated. After the ceremony, the order of recessional is the reverse of the processional. The greatest dignitaries stream out first, with the artfully organized ranks of priority wallowing in their wake.

It is hoped that these notes may make more intelligible the spectacle you are witnessing today. A discerning intelligence may detect in it many clues to an understanding of the academic profession as it confronts the ambiguities of the future with ancient wisdom and dignified confidence.

OAKLAND UNIVERSITY FIGHT SONG

Fight, fight, fight for Oakland
Fight the whole game long
Fight, fight, fight for Oakland
Keep the Grizzlies strong.

While the battle rages
And our work's not done
We will fight for glory
'Til the game is won

Go Black!

Go Gold!

Go Fight!

Fight, fight, fight for Oakland
Fight the whole game long
Fight, fight, fight for Oakland
Keep the Grizzlies strong.

When the game is over
And the story's told
O-U will claim vic'try
We're the black and gold! O-U!

UNIVERSITY AWARDS

OUTSTANDING DISSERTATION AWARD

In order to acknowledge the critical importance of producing quality dissertations, Oakland University is designating the university's Outstanding Dissertation Award. The award is based on the overall scholarship contribution of the work, quality of writing and organization of the work, and the creativity and originality of the research.

The 2021 recipients of the Outstanding Dissertation Award are:

Mingyuan Tao, Ph.D. in Mechanical Engineering

Zhixin Lun, Ph.D. in Applied Mathematical Sciences

Berkley J. Browne, Ph.D. in Educational Leadership

HUMAN RELATIONS AWARD

The Human Relations Award recognizes outstanding work and dedication toward the improvement of human relations on the university campus.

The 2021 recipient of the Human Relations Award is a senior in the College of Arts and Sciences:

Jai Carrero

ALFRED G. WILSON AWARD

The Alfred G. Wilson Award is presented to an Oakland University senior man who has made outstanding contributions as a scholar, leader and responsible citizen to the Oakland University community.

The 2021 recipient of the Alfred G. Wilson Award is a graduate from the College of Arts and Sciences and School of Engineering and Computer Science:

Jack Andrews

MATILDA R. WILSON AWARD

The Matilda R. Wilson Award is presented to an Oakland University senior woman who has made outstanding contributions as a scholar, leader and responsible citizen to the Oakland University community.

The 2021 recipient of the Matilda R. Wilson Award is a graduate from the College of Arts and Sciences:

OUWB SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

CLASS OF 2021 OATH

Today, our lives as physicians begin. On this day, we vow:

- First and foremost, we promise to do no harm and to maintain the utmost respect for life and death.
- We pledge ourselves to a life of healing and integrity; we will not forsake humility and service for the pursuit of power and influence.
- We will respect and provide care to all patients regardless of age, gender identity, disability, religious belief, ethnic origin, race, nationality, political affiliation, sexual orientation, social standing or any other factor.
- We promise to evaluate disease processes holistically; addressing physical, psychosocial, environmental, and economic influences, in order to better serve our patients.
- We will protect our patients' confidentiality, maintain their dignity, and respect their autonomy.
- We will serve as a source of courage and information for our local and global community as we face worldwide emergencies, pandemics, or crises.
- We will use our station, not only to advocate for our individual patients, but to address health disparities and to affirm healthcare as a human right for all members of society.
- We will continuously work to identify and challenge our biases, so that we may provide compassionate patient care to diverse populations.
- We will prioritize caring for ourselves, so that we may remain well in our journey to serve others.
- We commit to being lifelong learners, in the endeavor to become masters of our craft.
- We will conscientiously and judiciously seek medical resources, evidence-based research, and technology to provide the best care to our patients.
- We will take ownership for our mistakes and recognize our own limitations.
- We will revere and support our colleagues, while holding them accountable to their honorable commitments.
- We will admire the talents and contributions of all members of the healthcare team.
- We will strive to educate, assist, and uplift future generations of healthcare practitioners, regardless of their origins, so that we may see diversity flourish, and innovation and excellence in abundance.
- We will dignify our patients by listening to and honoring their stories, reserving judgement, and striving to be a source of comfort in difficult times.

We make these lifelong promises gratefully, of our own free will, and upon our honor.

UNIVERSITY, DEPARTMENTAL, SCHOOL AND CONCILIAR HONORS

At each commencement Oakland University extends special recognition to those students who have attained outstanding levels of academic achievement.

The University Senate, acting on the advice of its Committee on Academic Standing and Honors, authorizes University Honors at three levels for those students who have completed 62 credits or more at Oakland, with cumulative averages as follows:

Summa Cum Laude 3.90 - 4.00

Magna Cum Laude 3.75 - 3.89

Cum Laude 3.60 - 3.74

Students who have earned University Honors wear a gold cord over their academic regalia.

Each student who has a record of superior achievement in a major field of study is awarded departmental honors and is identified by a red cord worn over academic regalia.

Conciliar Honors are awarded by the Faculty Council for Bachelor of Integrative Studies to outstanding graduates of the Bachelor of Integrative Studies program, who are identified by a red cord worn over academic regalia.

OAKLAND UNIVERSITY™

Alumni Association

Dear Graduates,

Congratulations on your graduation! Thank you for all that you have done during your time here as students – you are living, breathing examples of the transformation and opportunity made possible by an Oakland University education. I am especially proud to congratulate our Legacy graduates, whose families – like mine – have made OU a family tradition.

The University has enjoyed remarkable growth during your time at OU. I encourage you to stay in touch and remain engaged in the life of the University through the alumni association.

Together, we make a difference by joining fellow alumni at events that support scholarships and programs, volunteering our time, making a gift, advocating for OU, mentoring OU students, and sharing our OU pride. One of the most important things we can continue is to support scholarships and provide opportunities that help ensure the success of the next generation of OU graduates.

As a graduate of OU, you automatically qualify to receive the benefits available through the association without membership fees. On behalf of the Oakland University Alumni Association Board of Directors, I hope that this will encourage you to continue to participate in the life of the University in a way that is meaningful for you.

Good luck in all you do as you begin this next chapter in your life.

Best Regards,
Bryan Barnett, SBA '98
Chair, OUAA Board of Directors

This program contains an unofficial list of candidates for degrees and honors for 2020. The lists are as accurate as possible; however, because of printing deadlines, names of some degree recipients may not appear, while names of degree candidates may appear even though they have not completed their degree requirements.

The University's official registry for conferral of degrees is the Academic Records Office, 102 O'Dowd Hall, 586 Pioneer Drive, Rochester, Michigan 48309-4401.
