Article V

Committees

The President, with approval of the Executive Board, may appoint standing and special Committees. Members of the Committees may be drawn from the membership as well as from the Executive Board.

A. Allocations

- a. The Allocations Committee shall be chaired by the Treasurer. The Committee oversees the financial activities of all OUWBAC committees to ensure the proper usage of monies assigned to it by the Oakland University Alumni Association or OUWB Development Office. The Treasurer chairs this committee, and all usage of monies need prior approval by the full Executive Board.

B. Alumni Donations

- a. The Alumni Donations Committee shall be chaired by the Treasurer. The goal of the Alumni Donations Committee is to work with the Oakland University Alumni Association and OUWB's Development Office in order to raise gifts for the School of Medicine from all alumni through direct mail, personal contact, and electronic communications. Committee members advise on prospects, strategies, and Alumni Donation Committee programs or events.

C. Awards Committee

- a. The Awards Committee shall be chaired by the President-Elect. The goal of the Awards Committee is to: support the OUWB Development Office in the awarding of scholarships for active OUWB students; recognize past and present alumni who have distinguished themselves in the allied sciences, or any whose work has contributed significantly to the advancement of OUWB; and recommend to the Executive Board distinguished doctors of medicine, or layman having distinguished themselves in the allied sciences, or any whose work has contributed to the advancement of OUWB, as candidates for Honorary Membership in this Chapter.

D. Communications

- a. The Communications Committee shall be chaired by the Secretary. The Communications Committee will work with other committees and with the Oakland University Marketing Office in the publication and dissemination of alumni news and information. The Committee will also work with OUWB to raise public awareness of the work and achievements of the school and its students. The committee will manage the development and dissemination of the OUWB Alumni Journal.

E. Education

- a. The Education Committee will recommend and execute programs and activities, with approval of and in collaboration with OUWB administration, designed to enhance the education of current students within OUWB. These programs may include, but will not be limited to: mentoring, job shadowing, internship and tutoring programs.

F. Nominating

- a. The Nominating Committee shall be chaired by the President-Elect. The Nominating Committee nominates the Officers of the Medical Alumni Association who will serve a term of one year, for President and President-Elect, and three years, for Secretary and Treasurer. The Committee consists of the Officers of the Executive Board. The Committee submits its selections to the Executive Board for their approval. The approved slate is communicated via ballots to voting members no later than two months prior to the Annual Meeting. Results of the ballot voting will be announced at the Annual Meeting and Officers' term of office will commence from the date of the Annual Meeting.

G. Social

- a. The Social Committee shall be chaired by the Secretary. All meetings and events involving the members of the Alumni Association will be scheduled and planned by the Committee. The Committee's function is to study and make recommendations on new projects or activities. The committee is responsible for making recommendations to the Executive Board regarding all approved and exploratory receptions, events and other activities.

Article VII

Repeal and Amendment

These By-Laws may be repealed or amended in whole or in part by two-thirds vote of the Executive Board or by majority approval of voting members at the Annual Meeting.
